Cycle and External Stress - Practice worksheet

Add work, racism, disability access, money, or caregiving pressures to the cycle map without using them to excuse harm.

Adults; supported use as appropriate | 15 minutes

Fictional example: A changing shift schedule leaves Alex and Sam with less predictable time together.

Use an ordinary or fictional example, with a clinician when appropriate. External pressures can intensify the relational loop.

Practice task

Add work, racism, disability access, money, or caregiving pressures to the cycle map without using them to excuse harm.

1. My chosen or fictional situation, and what I know about it:

2. My response to the practice task above:

3. Which pressure needs practical support alongside relational work?

4. An optional next step, support, adaptation, or reason to stop:

Scope and adaptation

Joint exercises require private safety assessment, voluntary participation, and appropriate EFT training. Do not invite joint vulnerability, enactments, or disclosure where coercion, violence, fear, or retaliation may be present. Use individual support and appropriate referrals instead. This collection concerns attachment-based Emotionally Focused Therapy, not tapping or Emotional Freedom Techniques.
