Awareness through Drawing - Practice worksheet

Sketch the current situation using shapes and let the maker name what each shape means; revise any meaning that does not fit.

Adults; supported use as appropriate | 15 minutes

Fictional example: Rae draws a narrow doorway to describe a crowded schedule.

Use an ordinary or fictional example, with a clinician when appropriate. A drawing is a way to notice, not a diagnostic symbol.

Practice task

Sketch the current situation using shapes and let the maker name what each shape means; revise any meaning that does not fit.

1. My chosen or fictional situation, and what I know about it:

2. My response to the practice task above:

3. What does your image mean to you today?

4. An optional next step, support, adaptation, or reason to stop:

Scope and adaptation

Keep experiments collaborative and low intensity. Chair-based or unfinished-business exploration belongs with appropriately trained clinicians after assessment, with a stop cue and an observing alternative. Do not interpret symbols, recover memories, force body focus, or use cathartic confrontation.
