Life Tasks Balance - Practice worksheet

Create personally chosen life-task areas and notice where resources and demands are uneven.

Adults; supported use as appropriate | 15 minutes

Fictional example: Morgan values community and creative work but has little time for either.

Use an ordinary or fictional example, with a clinician when appropriate. Work, friendship, and intimacy can be examined without imposing one life path.

Practice task

Create personally chosen life-task areas and notice where resources and demands are uneven.

1. My chosen or fictional situation, and what I know about it:

2. My response to the practice task above:

3. Which area matters to you, rather than to someone else's expectations?

4. An optional next step, support, adaptation, or reason to stop:

Scope and adaptation

Explore patterns as collaborative hypotheses. Do not infer personality from sibling position, treat recollections as recovered facts, blame people for coping, or frame structural inequality as a lack of effort.
