Request and Boundary Rehearsal - Practice worksheet

Draft a factual description, your perspective, a specific request, and a realistic negotiation limit for a low-stakes interaction.

Adults; supported use as appropriate | 15 minutes

Fictional example: Taylor asks a coworker to clarify a task deadline.

Use an ordinary or fictional example, with a clinician when appropriate. An effective request can balance clarity, relationship, and self-respect.

Practice task

Draft a factual description, your perspective, a specific request, and a realistic negotiation limit for a low-stakes interaction.

1. My chosen or fictional situation, and what I know about it:

2. My response to the practice task above:

3. What makes the request clear without promising agreement?

4. An optional next step, support, adaptation, or reason to stop:

Scope and adaptation

These are selected DBT-informed educational exercises, not comprehensive DBT, phone coaching, or crisis care. Use individualized clinical assessment and existing care plans. No cold-water immersion, breath holding, intense exercise prescriptions, exposure assignments, or risk scoring are included. Behavior chains and opposite-action decisions need clinician guidance when risk or complexity is present.
