Environment in the Field - Practice worksheet

Place a concern in a map that includes culture, work rules, relationships, resources, and sensory conditions.

Adults; supported use as appropriate | 15 minutes

Fictional example: Rae's fatigue is affected by shift schedules and limited transport.

Use an ordinary or fictional example, with a clinician when appropriate. Experience is shaped by social and physical conditions.

Practice task

Place a concern in a map that includes culture, work rules, relationships, resources, and sensory conditions.

1. My chosen or fictional situation, and what I know about it:

2. My response to the practice task above:

3. What becomes visible when the wider situation is included?

4. An optional next step, support, adaptation, or reason to stop:

Scope and adaptation

Keep experiments collaborative and low intensity. Chair-based or unfinished-business exploration belongs with appropriately trained clinicians after assessment, with a stop cue and an observing alternative. Do not interpret symbols, recover memories, force body focus, or use cathartic confrontation.
