Miracle Question with Choice - Practice worksheet

Choose either an imagined overnight improvement or a slightly better tomorrow, then describe visible signs rather than perfection.

Adults; supported use as appropriate | 15 minutes

Fictional example: Devin prefers imagining a ten-percent easier morning to a complete miracle.

Use an ordinary or fictional example, with a clinician when appropriate. An imagined change is optional and can be replaced with a small-change question.

Practice task

Choose either an imagined overnight improvement or a slightly better tomorrow, then describe visible signs rather than perfection.

1. My chosen or fictional situation, and what I know about it:

2. My response to the practice task above:

3. What version of the question fits your worldview?

4. An optional next step, support, adaptation, or reason to stop:

Scope and adaptation

Acknowledge distress and structural barriers before asking about change. Do not use exceptions or compliments to dismiss harm. A personal scale is a conversational aid, not a validated outcome measure, risk screen, or reason to withhold assessment.
