Boundaries around Substance Use - Scenario Card Exchange

You may write, draw, think quietly, use fiction, observe, or pass. Share only what you choose. This educational activity is not a test.

Fictional example: A supporter wants to decline an unsafe situation.

1. What is known in the fictional example, and what needs checking?

2. Draft a clear boundary about one's own participation without promising control over another person. My notes, drawing, or possible response:

3. What action is within the boundary-setter's control?

4. One optional next step, support, or reason to revise the idea:

You can pause or stop. Ask your facilitator for an alternative if this does not fit. No identifying information belongs in shared copies. Independent clinical review pending.