A Useful Closing Circle - Learning Review Circle

You may write, draw, think quietly, use fiction, observe, or pass. Share only what you choose. This educational activity is not a test.

Fictional example: A member leaves with an unresolved question.

1. What is known in the fictional example, and what needs checking?

2. Offer several closing options that include an observation, support request, next step, or pass. My notes, drawing, or possible response:

3. What would support a manageable ending?

4. One optional next step, support, or reason to revise the idea:

You can pause or stop. Ask your facilitator for an alternative if this does not fit. No identifying information belongs in shared copies. Independent clinical review pending.