A Place for Grief and Joy - Learning Review Circle

20 minutes | 3-12 people | Adults with trained group facilitation

Design a group check-in that allows mixed emotions and passing without prescribing positivity.

Open with choice - 3 minutes

Explain the purpose, privacy limits, and the option to observe, use fiction, adapt, or pass. Check access needs and group readiness; do not promise absolute confidentiality.

Meet the fictional case - 4 minutes

One member is celebrating while another is grieving. Ask what is known, what is assumed, and what the person in the case wants.

Practice: Guided discussion - 6 minutes

Design a group check-in that allows mixed emotions and passing without prescribing positivity. Imagine the fictional person tried one part of the task and found the result mixed. Offer quiet reflection before voluntary sharing. Compare what fit, what was unavailable, and what needs revision; no one must disclose a personal setback.

Reflect and compare - 4 minutes

How can the group hold both experiences? Ask what fits, what does not, and what external conditions or supports affect the options. No personal disclosure is required.

Close and integrate - 3 minutes

Invite an optional observation, support request, or small next step. Passing is welcome. Agree how to revisit questions and seek appropriate help outside the exercise.

Practice output

A learning summary with one thing to retain, revise, or discuss with qualified support.

Scope and care

Use fictional or ordinary examples, consent, accessibility adaptations, and passing. Original educational group facilitation; not a complete treatment protocol. Do not interpret drawings or require personal disclosure.
