One-Thing Attention Practice

You may write, draw, think quietly, use fiction, or pass. Share only what you choose. This is an educational practice activity, not an assessment.

An optional fictional starting point

A person juggles messages while reading instructions.

1. Choose an ordinary or fictional example. You may keep details private.

2. Try this task: Try a short single-task activity and compare it with divided attention without scoring performance.

3. What made attention easier or harder?

4. One optional next step, support request, or question I want to carry forward.

You can pause or stop. Ask your facilitator for an alternative if this activity does not fit. Keep identifying details out of any shared copy.