Invite and agree - 3 minutes

Name the purpose and the right to pass, observe, write, or use fiction. Agree that people share only their own experiences and do not promise absolute group confidentiality.

Introduce the example - 3 minutes

A message says we need to talk. Ask what is known and what is still a guess.

Practice: Practice experiment - 7 minutes

Compare several readings of a short message and rewrite it for clarity. Agree on a short, reversible test and what to notice. Try or simulate it, then compare observations without scoring people.

Reflect together - 4 minutes

What wording reduces avoidable ambiguity? Ask what fit, what did not fit, and what would make the exercise more accessible. Do not interpret another person's response.

Choose a next step - 3 minutes

Invite one optional action, support request, or question to carry forward. Passing is a valid closing response. Confirm how to seek appropriate support outside the activity.

Facilitator fit and boundaries

Practice with low-stakes examples. Consider power differences and safety; do not rehearse confronting an unsafe person.

Offer observation, private writing, or a fictional example. Adapt instructions and group size to access needs. No client responses are collected by this page.
