Privacy Sharing Check

You may write, draw, think quietly, use fiction, or pass. Share only what you choose. This is an educational practice activity, not an assessment.

An optional fictional starting point

A person wants to tell a story involving a friend.

1. Choose an ordinary or fictional example. You may keep details private.

2. Try this task: Sort information into yours to share, shared with permission, and not yours to disclose.

3. Whose permission might be needed?

4. One optional next step, support request, or question I want to carry forward.

You can pause or stop. Ask your facilitator for an alternative if this activity does not fit. Keep identifying details out of any shared copy.
