Emotion Soundtrack

Creative Expression | 45 minutes | 3-12 participants | Adults and teens 13+ with appropriate facilitation

Purpose

Participants explore how music relates to mood and coping.

Materials: Paper or a printable handout, Pens or an accessible writing alternative, Optional blank cards or simple drawing materials

Invite and agree - 3 minutes

Name the purpose and the right to pass, observe, write, or use fiction. Agree that people share only their own experiences and do not promise absolute group confidentiality.

Introduce the example - 3 minutes

Use a fictional, ordinary example chosen by the facilitator; personal disclosure is optional. Ask what is known and what is still a guess.

Practice: Planning workshop - 32 minutes

Choose instrumental clips or self-selected songs; discuss emotion, memories, and helpful versus unhelpful uses; avoid required disclosure. Sketch several possible responses, compare access and likely tradeoffs, and choose one adjustable plan with a backup.

Reflect together - 4 minutes

How can music support rather than intensify an emotion? Ask what fit, what did not fit, and what would make the exercise more accessible. Do not interpret another person's response.

Choose a next step - 3 minutes

Invite one optional action, support request, or question to carry forward. Passing is a valid closing response. Confirm how to seek appropriate support outside the activity.

Facilitator fit and boundaries

Offer non-art alternatives. Meaning belongs to the maker; do not diagnose from symbols, colors, or artwork.

Offer observation, private writing, or a fictional example. Adapt instructions and group size to access needs. No client responses are collected by this page.
