Sound and Silence Map

Creative Expression | 30 minutes | 3-12 participants | Adults and teens 13+ with appropriate facilitation

Purpose

Arrange moments of sound and silence as deliberate choices in a short piece.

Materials: Paper or a printable handout, Pens or an accessible writing alternative, Optional blank cards or simple drawing materials

Invite and agree - 3 minutes

Name the purpose and the right to pass, observe, write, or use fiction. Agree that people share only their own experiences and do not promise absolute group confidentiality.

Introduce the example - 3 minutes

A group makes a pattern together. Ask what is known and what is still a guess.

Practice: Mapping - 17 minutes

Arrange moments of sound and silence as deliberate choices in a short piece. Create a simple diagram or table. Label relationships, gaps, or choices; participants decide which connections fit.

Reflect together - 4 minutes

What does the silence contribute? Ask what fit, what did not fit, and what would make the exercise more accessible. Do not interpret another person's response.

Choose a next step - 3 minutes

Invite one optional action, support request, or question to carry forward. Passing is a valid closing response. Confirm how to seek appropriate support outside the activity.

Facilitator fit and boundaries

Offer non-art alternatives. Meaning belongs to the maker; do not diagnose from symbols, colors, or artwork.

Offer observation, private writing, or a fictional example. Adapt instructions and group size to access needs. No client responses are collected by this page.
