Invite and agree - 3 minutes

Name the purpose and the right to pass, observe, write, or use fiction. Agree that people share only their own experiences and do not promise absolute group confidentiality.

Introduce the example - 3 minutes

Family members use the same room at different times. Ask what is known and what is still a guess.

Practice: Planning workshop - 17 minutes

Negotiate one household agreement using concrete actions and realistic responsibilities. Sketch several possible responses, compare access and likely tradeoffs, and choose one adjustable plan with a backup.

Reflect together - 4 minutes

What can everyone reasonably agree to do? Ask what fit, what did not fit, and what would make the exercise more accessible. Do not interpret another person's response.

Choose a next step - 3 minutes

Invite one optional action, support request, or question to carry forward. Passing is a valid closing response. Confirm how to seek appropriate support outside the activity.

Facilitator fit and boundaries

Use fictional cooperative situations. Do not use joint role-play to address abuse, coercion, or safety concerns; arrange appropriate individual support.

Offer observation, private writing, or a fictional example. Adapt instructions and group size to access needs. No client responses are collected by this page.
