Appreciation With Evidence

Family Relationships | 30 minutes | 2-8 participants | Adults; caregivers or family groups as appropriate

Purpose

Write optional appreciation focused on a specific action rather than an assigned family role.

Materials: Paper or a printable handout, Pens or an accessible writing alternative, Optional blank cards or simple drawing materials

Invite and agree - 3 minutes

Name the purpose and the right to pass, observe, write, or use fiction. Agree that people share only their own experiences and do not promise absolute group confidentiality.

Introduce the example - 3 minutes

A person notices someone checking a shared calendar. Ask what is known and what is still a guess.

Practice: Creative activity - 17 minutes

Write optional appreciation focused on a specific action rather than an assigned family role. Offer writing, drawing, arranging objects, or describing a fictional creation. No artistic skill or personal disclosure is required.

Reflect together - 4 minutes

What action made a difference? Ask what fit, what did not fit, and what would make the exercise more accessible. Do not interpret another person's response.

Choose a next step - 3 minutes

Invite one optional action, support request, or question to carry forward. Passing is a valid closing response. Confirm how to seek appropriate support outside the activity.

Facilitator fit and boundaries

Use fictional cooperative situations. Do not use joint role-play to address abuse, coercion, or safety concerns; arrange appropriate individual support.

Offer observation, private writing, or a fictional example. Adapt instructions and group size to access needs. No client responses are collected by this page.
