Grief & Resilience | 30 minutes | 3-12 participants | Adults with appropriate facilitation

Purpose

Make room for a loss without requiring growth or a positive lesson.

Materials: Paper or a printable handout, Pens or an accessible writing alternative, Optional blank cards or simple drawing materials

Invite and agree - 3 minutes

Name the purpose and the right to pass, observe, write, or use fiction. Agree that people share only their own experiences and do not promise absolute group confidentiality.

Introduce the example - 3 minutes

A character is told the experience happened for a reason. Ask what is known and what is still a guess.

Practice: Guided discussion - 17 minutes

Make room for a loss without requiring growth or a positive lesson. Offer a quiet thinking minute before optional paired or whole-group discussion. Reflect differences without requiring agreement.

Reflect together - 4 minutes

What response respects their own beliefs? Ask what fit, what did not fit, and what would make the exercise more accessible. Do not interpret another person's response.

Choose a next step - 3 minutes

Invite one optional action, support request, or question to carry forward. Passing is a valid closing response. Confirm how to seek appropriate support outside the activity.

Facilitator fit and boundaries

Allow privacy and passing. Do not prescribe grief stages, closure, forgiveness, spiritual meaning, or a growth lesson.

Offer observation, private writing, or a fictional example. Adapt instructions and group size to access needs. No client responses are collected by this page.
