Motivation Metaphor Studio

Motivation & Change | 30 minutes | 3-12 participants | Adults with appropriate facilitation

Purpose

Develop a personally chosen image for changing motivation without treating it as a fixed trait.

Materials: Paper or a printable handout, Pens or an accessible writing alternative, Optional blank cards or simple drawing materials

Invite and agree - 3 minutes

Name the purpose and the right to pass, observe, write, or use fiction. Agree that people share only their own experiences and do not promise absolute group confidentiality.

Introduce the example - 3 minutes

A character describes willingness as changing weather. Ask what is known and what is still a guess.

Practice: Creative activity - 17 minutes

Develop a personally chosen image for changing motivation without treating it as a fixed trait. Offer writing, drawing, arranging objects, or describing a fictional creation. No artistic skill or personal disclosure is required.

Reflect together - 4 minutes

What does the image suggest about flexibility? Ask what fit, what did not fit, and what would make the exercise more accessible. Do not interpret another person's response.

Choose a next step - 3 minutes

Invite one optional action, support request, or question to carry forward. Passing is a valid closing response. Confirm how to seek appropriate support outside the activity.

Facilitator fit and boundaries

Respect ambivalence and the option not to change. Do not use ratings to pressure compliance.

Offer observation, private writing, or a fictional example. Adapt instructions and group size to access needs. No client responses are collected by this page.
