Peer Pressure Rehearsal

Youth & Adolescent Skills | 30 minutes | 3-10 participants | Ages 10-17 with trained adult facilitation

Purpose

Participants practice refusal and exit strategies.

Materials: Paper or a printable handout, Pens or an accessible writing alternative, Optional blank cards or simple drawing materials

Invite and agree - 3 minutes

Name the purpose and the right to pass, observe, write, or use fiction. Agree that people share only their own experiences and do not promise absolute group confidentiality.

Introduce the example - 3 minutes

Use a fictional, ordinary example chosen by the facilitator; personal disclosure is optional. Ask what is known and what is still a guess.

Practice: Skills rehearsal - 17 minutes

Use age-appropriate fictional scenarios; practice three responses: direct no, alternative offer, and leaving with support. Model one short example. Invite a speaker, listener, or observer role; rehearse a low-stakes version and switch roles only by choice.

Reflect together - 4 minutes

Which response sounds natural in your own words? Ask what fit, what did not fit, and what would make the exercise more accessible. Do not interpret another person's response.

Choose a next step - 3 minutes

Invite one optional action, support request, or question to carry forward. Passing is a valid closing response. Confirm how to seek appropriate support outside the activity.

Facilitator fit and boundaries

For ages 10-17 with trained adult facilitation. Use age-appropriate fictional examples, clarify privacy limits, and follow safeguarding procedures.

Offer observation, private writing, or a fictional example. Adapt instructions and group size to access needs. No client responses are collected by this page.
