A Recovery Goal in My Language - Scenario Card Exchange

You may write, draw, think quietly, use fiction, observe, or pass. Share only what you choose. This educational activity is not a test.

Fictional example: A fictional member attends because of a referral but wants better mornings.

1. What is known in the fictional example, and what needs checking?

2. Translate an externally stated goal into a personally meaningful recovery aim and an observable next sign. My notes, drawing, or possible response:

3. What part of the goal belongs to the person?

4. One optional next step, support, or reason to revise the idea:

You can pause or stop. Ask your facilitator for an alternative if this does not fit. No identifying information belongs in shared copies. Independent clinical review pending.
