Boundaries for the Next Week - Practice worksheet

Choose a limited, voluntary agreement about contact, privacy, or scheduling and set a review time; exclude forced surveillance.

Adults; supported use as appropriate | 15 minutes

Fictional example: Lee wants a predictable check-in time rather than constant questioning.

Use an ordinary or fictional example, with a clinician when appropriate. Short-term agreements can create predictability while longer-term choices remain open.

Practice task

Choose a limited, voluntary agreement about contact, privacy, or scheduling and set a review time; exclude forced surveillance.

1. My chosen or fictional situation, and what I know about it:

2. My response to the practice task above:

3. What agreement is clear, consensual, and reviewable?

4. An optional next step, support, adaptation, or reason to stop:

Scope and adaptation

Joint work requires private assessment of coercion, violence, fear, and retaliation. Do not require graphic disclosure, passwords, surveillance, reconciliation, forgiveness, or sexual contact. Accountability for deception is not assigned to the hurt partner. Support individual agency and appropriate medical, legal, or safety consultation without using this worksheet as professional advice.
