Relationship Agreements about Media - Review journal

Review an attempt at relationship agreements about media and choose what to keep, change, or leave aside.

Adults; supported use as appropriate | 10 minutes

Fictional example: Noah and a partner have never clearly discussed expectations about sexual media.

Use an ordinary or fictional example, with a clinician when appropriate. Partners can clarify agreements without assuming identical preferences.

Practice task

Privately identify preferences, boundaries, and questions; joint discussion requires safety and voluntary participation.

1. What I tried, or what happened in the fictional example:

2. What I noticed before, during, and after; what remains uncertain:

3. What helped, did not help, or was outside my control:

4. What needs clarification before a broken agreement is assumed? My optional adjustment or support request:

Scope and adaptation

Adult-only, non-explicit educational resources. The searchable phrase pornography addiction is not used here as an established diagnosis. Frequency, high desire, or moral distress alone does not establish a disorder; assess impaired control, functioning, distress, consent, and context with a qualified clinician. Respect consensual sexuality and chosen goals; no explicit media, aversion exercises, forced disclosure, or coercive monitoring.
