Reclaiming Time for Chosen Activities - Review journal

Review an attempt at reclaiming time for chosen activities and choose what to keep, change, or leave aside.

Fictional example: Noah wants to make room for a creative project in the evening.

Use an ordinary or fictional example, with a clinician when appropriate. Behavior change can include building a life with more wanted experiences.

Practice task

Choose a small activity that expresses a valued direction and identify time, access, and support needed.

1. What I tried, or what happened in the fictional example:

2. What I noticed before, during, and after; what remains uncertain:

3. What helped, did not help, or was outside my control:

4. What are you moving toward, not only away from? My optional adjustment or support request:

Scope and adaptation

Adult-only, non-explicit educational resources. The searchable phrase pornography addiction is not used here as an established diagnosis. Frequency, high desire, or moral distress alone does not establish a disorder; assess impaired control, functioning, distress, consent, and context with a qualified clinician. Respect consensual sexuality and chosen goals; no explicit media, aversion exercises, forced disclosure, or coercive monitoring.
