Relationship Agreements about Media - Practice worksheet

Privately identify preferences, boundaries, and questions; joint discussion requires safety and voluntary participation.

Adults; supported use as appropriate | 15 minutes

Fictional example: Noah and a partner have never clearly discussed expectations about sexual media.

Use an ordinary or fictional example, with a clinician when appropriate. Partners can clarify agreements without assuming identical preferences.

Practice task

Privately identify preferences, boundaries, and questions; joint discussion requires safety and voluntary participation.

1. My chosen or fictional situation, and what I know about it:

2. My response to the practice task above:

3. What needs clarification before a broken agreement is assumed?

4. An optional next step, support, adaptation, or reason to stop:

Scope and adaptation

Adult-only, non-explicit educational resources. The searchable phrase pornography addiction is not used here as an established diagnosis. Frequency, high desire, or moral distress alone does not establish a disorder; assess impaired control, functioning, distress, consent, and context with a qualified clinician. Respect consensual sexuality and chosen goals; no explicit media, aversion exercises, forced disclosure, or coercive monitoring.
