Values in Relationships - Practice worksheet

Describe the quality you want to bring to one relationship and a boundary that protects agency.

Adults; supported use as appropriate | 15 minutes

Fictional example: Avery wants honesty and cannot require the other person to respond warmly.

Use an ordinary or fictional example, with a clinician when appropriate. A person can choose how to participate without controlling another person's values.

Practice task

Describe the quality you want to bring to one relationship and a boundary that protects agency.

1. My chosen or fictional situation, and what I know about it:

2. My response to the practice task above:

3. What part of the relationship is yours to choose?

4. An optional next step, support, adaptation, or reason to stop:

Scope and adaptation

Values are personally chosen directions, not moral rankings or evidence of worth. Recognize structural barriers, disability access, and culturally varied meanings. Do not turn willingness into exposure to danger, excuse coercion, or prescribe one life path. These original exercises do not constitute a complete ACT protocol.
