Reviewing a Values Experiment - Practice worksheet

Describe an attempted action, what mattered, what got in the way, and a chosen revision.

Adults; supported use as appropriate | 15 minutes

Fictional example: Avery's planned check-in happened differently than expected.

Use an ordinary or fictional example, with a clinician when appropriate. Review asks about fit and direction rather than perfect consistency.

Practice task

Describe an attempted action, what mattered, what got in the way, and a chosen revision.

1. My chosen or fictional situation, and what I know about it:

2. My response to the practice task above:

3. What is worth keeping, changing, or leaving aside?

4. An optional next step, support, adaptation, or reason to stop:

Scope and adaptation

Values are personally chosen directions, not moral rankings or evidence of worth. Recognize structural barriers, disability access, and culturally varied meanings. Do not turn willingness into exposure to danger, excuse coercion, or prescribe one life path. These original exercises do not constitute a complete ACT protocol.
